JASMINE ZHAO | BALLET

Jasmine graduated from Beijing Dance Academy Ballet Department (Undergraduate) and is a dedicated professional dancer for more than 20 years with rich experience in dance performance and teaching. She has participated in numerous competitions and have obtained honours for dance performance at the CCTV Spring Festival Gala, won First Prize for Duet Dance at the Beijing University Student Dance Competition and received Performance Prize at the National Dance Competition China.

Jasmine used to dance with the Liaoning Ballet of China in duets, the Shenzhen Windows of the World Wuzhou Art Troupe and was the main performer for the ballet performance, often invited to attend large-scale dance events in China, also performed for the CCTV The Same Song.

Jasmine was also a ballet teacher at the Japan Matsuyama Ballet School when she was previously based in Japan.

Jasmine's dance teaching focuses on six major components combining the syllabus of the Ballet Department of the Beijing Dance Academy with a personal tailored approach based on a rich and diverse experience as a performer rooted with deep understanding of method training. Jasmine is also qualified in the Vaganova technique.